Tutoring Experience

I have been tutoring for two years, guiding students through challenging IB and A-Level maths topics. My expertise also extends to GCSE and IGCSE, where I've helped students solidify their understanding of core mathematical concepts, preparing them for their exams.

During my time tutoring, I've worked with students from various backgrounds, ensuring they gain the skills needed to excel in mathematics. I focus on helping students build strong problem-solving abilities, which has led many of them to achieve excellent results in their exams.
