Tutoring Experience

I have been tutoring IB English and other curriculums for two years, guiding students through assignments and exam preparation. My focus is on helping them develop strong essay-writing skills and a deep understanding of literary analysis, which has consistently led to high exam scores and improved performance in class.

Additionally, I have experience working with students from diverse backgrounds, providing them with the support they need to excel in IB English and beyond. Many of my students have achieved 6s and 7s in their assessments, and I aim to ensure their success by fostering both academic and personal growth.
